Treasurer Report

- Taxes Submitted
- Projected revenue 37K for the 2015-2016 school year.
- Some items covered by the PTA: 2nd grade opera trip, agendas (3rd-5th), AR reading program, Sand Dollar, library manager program, boards, playground install, teacher luncheon, beach brigade, school photo framed, membership drive award luncheon, welcome breakfast for parents, newspapers, astronomy night, etc..
- Discussed going to a PayPal account for Pizza Fridays, offering parents a credit card option. Cost to the PTA - 1k per year. Information organized and submitted to teacher via excel spreadsheet.
- As a 501(c)3 - budgets under 50k submit year end taxes via short form, if we go over would need to contact a CPA for long form submission.

Old Business

- Kindergarten luncheon for membership drive to be set.
- Parents asked to go to Amazon Smile and select Pensacola Beach Elementary School as their charity. It can be linked to anyones prime account also. They give 0.5% back to the school. Researching with Amazon correct deposit information for PBES PTA account.
- Amounts raised via Tea School Days and Papa John fundraiser: Tea - $96; Papa Johns - Oct. $109/Nov $59. Papa Johns next date is in February.

New Business

- Dominoes has approached us to also offer fundraising dates. Another easy, no obligation revenue for PBES PTA.
- Discussed Chic-fil-A Spirit Night participation.
- Optimist Club Kid Raffle in the Castle discussed. 100 tickets offered at $50/ticket. Takes place at the beach mansion - Turtle House 913 Ariola Dr. Parents and friends are encouraged to support this fundraiser for the Optimist Club. They truly do a lot for PBES.
- JOOI Club hosting a gift drive for foster children and their foster parents. Media will be at PBES when the donated items are picked up.
- Discussed upcoming spring fundraiser Trivia Night in February: Jamieson Peterson discussed her experience with similar a fundraiser. Adult only evening. Each table could have a theme and choose their own decor, dress and food option. Prizes given and host a silent auction. Discussed venue options, number of rounds/questions, MC, partnering with a local college/institution for sitter options.

FALL FESTIVAL Debrief

- Fall Festiva Net Revenue: $12,057.
- Discussed - wristbands worked out well, lowering the raffle amounts to get more participants, have the food and drink stations separate to decrease congestion, start earlier with pre-purchase tickets.

Drawing for front row Holiday Concert seats went to Jennifer Biland. Congrats!
